in the clubhouse

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

LOUD NOISES & BARKING DOGS: There have been several complaints about neighbors being too loud late at night and dogs barking loudly. Please be courteous to your neighbors and do not be so loud it disrupts sleep of others and keep your dogs from barking at all hours of the night.

I-10 ACCESS ROAD POTHOLE: The increasingly worse pothole in the road in front of Ingram Ready Mix is a major traffic hazard. Please help us and call Ingram Ready Mix at 830.249.3506 and TXDot at 830.249.2262 and report this hazard to ask them to fix it. We need your help to get this pothole fixed AGAIN before a major accident occurs.

BOERNE RUNNING CLUB: Are you interested in running, walking or crawling with a great group of people who will motivate you and get you out on the streets? BRC is a FREE running club meeting 3 times a week for runs and social time. You do not have to be an experienced runner! There are ALL types of levels of commitments. It is not too late to start. Join them Tuesdays at CHS track 6:30pm, Thursdays at Taste of Boerne 6:30pm or Saturdays at YMCA 7:30am. Check them out on their Boerne Running Company Facebook page!

POOL NEWS

The pool will open on May 21st for the weekends Saturday ~ 10am-10pm & Sunday ~ 10am-8pm until school lets out on June 2nd when it will be open regular hours.

Remember, your dues must be current and if you cannot find your pool badges, you may buy new ones for $5 each from any pool monitor on duty. Let's have a safe swim season!

A MATTER OF BALANCE: Many older adults experience concerns about falling that restrict their activities. A Matter of Balance is an award winning program designed to manage falls and increase activity levels. This class begins June 6th on Mondays & Wednesdays at Boerne Library 9:30am-11:30am on the first floor in the Community Room. Wear comfortable clothes; scooters, canes or walkers are acceptable.

THINGS TO DO WITH KIDS THIS SUMMER

- 1) Play traditional card games or board games. Your kids may love Yahtzee, gin rummy or poker played for pennies.
- 2) See free or cheap kids' movies. Many movie theater chains show free or cheap kids' films on weekday mornings during the summer. Get there early if you want a seat. Many cities and towns have free outdoor film festivals, and your local library may also show kids' movies.
- 3) Go to a free concert in the park. That's a great way to introduce kids to music and live performance.
- 4) Let the kids help you cook. Not only does this sharpen math skills with school out, but also kids are more likely to eat healthy meals they help prepare.
- 5) Do you sew, scrapbook, collect coins or do genealogy? Share that skill with your child or grandchild. If the child has expressed interest in a topic you haven't mastered, do the research and create projects together.
- 6) Take up a sport or pastime as a family. Yoga, karate, bicycling and hiking are good sports for families to engage in together. The best part is you can stay fit and spend quality time with your family all at once.
- 7) Bowling lanes nationwide offer free bowling for kids in summer, though required shoe rental is usually extra. Most participating lanes permit two free games daily for registered families, but bowling times and other rules can vary. Check out Kids Bowl Free program and free summer kids bowling program.
- 8) Visit your town's free attractions. They're magic to kids who have never seen them.
- 9) Give the kids a photography project. Let them choose a theme or subject and take photos all summer. They can then use those photos in a scrapbook, storybook, collage online slideshow or gift for relatives or friends.
- 10) Do outdoor potluck movie night and invite friends & neighbors. Kids can watch the film under the stars while parents and grandparents visit.
